

Help Neighbors showcase your summer

Summer is fast approaching and Neighbors would love to hear about your organization's plans for spring and summer festivals, Vacation Bible School programs, community events and sports camps and outings.

Just let us know who, what, when, where and why and we'll get the word out for you.

Then, don't forget to send us pictures of all the fun after the event, so we can share them with your neighbors.

Football league receives grant

United Way President Bob Hannon (left) and Community Investment Director Ginny Pasha met with Youngstown Flag Football Association President Elliott Giles and Vice President John Diaz to discuss a $2,500 grant that has been awarded to them. The grant will be placed into the league's general fund and used solely for the teams.

St. Christine's sixth-grade Lady Crusaders, from left; (front row) Nicole Malkovits, Gabby Miklandric, Rachel Listorti, Gia DiFabio, Brigid Donofrio; (back row) Joe Listorti, assistant coach, Paige Guerrieri, Madison Scrocco Julie Cook, Jami DiFabio, Haley Mitchell, Taylor Naples and Anthony Naples, head coach, finished their season as champions. The Crusaders won several tournaments, going undefeated in most. Ball girl Madeline Miklandric is not pictured.

The St. Christine sixth-grade girls basketball team completed another successful season finishing with a 50-3 record. The Lady Crusaders won the sixth-grade girls parochial league championship, finishing with a perfect 13-0 record.

Winning this championship was the first priority of the season. The team continued playing in the YMCA select league taking first place honors with a 7-0 record.

The girls competed in eight additional basketball tournaments across the area, finishing undefeated in five of eight tournaments.

They were tournament champions in Lordstown, Niles, Jackson Milton and St. Christine. The team captured second place in Newton Falls and third place in Girard.

The Lady Crusaders were 3-0 at Poland before a snowstorm canceled final play and finished undefeated in the Canfield tournament.
